ACCELERATE SUCCESS

EXPERIENCED EXECUTIVE TO EXCEPTIONAL LEADER

“Our Accelerate Success programme enables you to become a top operator who has presence and influence in the organisation. It enables you to achieve the breakthrough you require to become a true leader and pursue your career ambitions.”

Oona Collins
Founder and Director,
Potential Plus International

Our Accelerate Success programme is for executives with a strong track record of success who now want to make a breakthrough to achieve the next step up in their career.

If you are already doing a good job, we help you to do a great job, to forge ahead and get to where you want to be.

Why

You have a strong track record of commercial and operational success, getting results for your company. You are ambitious to advance in your career. You are highly competent and you do a good job.

How do you now achieve the breakthrough required to get to where you want to be?

How do you identify and remove the barriers that are holding you back to enable you to advance and achieve your full leadership potential?

“Your coaching has been no less than life-changing. I have gained energy and motivation and am much happier and more effective at work.”

Jacqueline Hill
Management Consultant,
The Hay Group

“If it wasn't for Oona, I would not be a Proprietary Partner, it's as simple as that.”

Caroline Foord
Partner,
Knight Frank LLP

“My personal growth and career success has been accelerated by the coaching course. I'm quite sure this acceleration would not have been as quick without it.”

Kurt Viertel
Managing Director,
Leo Burnett Singapore

POTENTIAL PLUS INTERNATIONAL

What

Accelerate Success puts the strategies in place that will determine your future.

This practical, results-driven coaching programme takes place over several months, during which we address the key issues that will make a difference. Specifically, we develop how you interact with and influence those around you – key stakeholders and your team – and help you increase your authority and presence.

Our role is to accelerate your performance and development in order to impact directly your advancement.

How

Potential Plus International's unique approach comes from our core belief that everyone has greatness within them. Our role is to bring that out in you.

Through highly personalised one-to-one coaching, we help you understand all the factors in play in your job and your career. We then accompany you directly in your day-to-day role to put the strategies and actions in place that will enable you to make the necessary changes, develop your presence and your ability to influence and lead. This practical coaching programme is fully tailored to you, focuses on measurable results and involves key stakeholders for maximum effectiveness.

Results

The Accelerate Success programme enables successful people to become more successful. We help you to become a top operator who has presence and influence within the organisation.

As a result of our time together, you will:

- Clarify what you want to achieve and what drives you.
- Develop your presence and authority within the organisation.
- Strengthen how you engage with your team and bring them on board with your vision.
- Increase the effectiveness of how you engage with all stakeholders.
- Build your influence and impact on the organisation.

The result: You become the best that you can be, achieving the personal breakthrough you require to become a true leader in the organisation and achieve your ambitions.

To start a conversation about how we might help you achieve your goals, please contact us. We would be delighted to arrange a discussion or one-to-one meeting.

“Oona is a fantastic, inspiring coach. She combines unflinching challenge, great wisdom and creativity with tough, clear thinking and analytical questioning. She has had a huge impact on me professionally and I would recommend her without reservation.”

Rosie Compton
